

Jennifer DiTroia

Jennifer grew up in Rochester, dancing at Performance Plus Dance. She received a talent scholarship for dance at the University at Buffalo where she graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts. While there, she danced with the Zodiaque Dance Company. Jennifer has received scholarships with Tremaine as well as New York City Dance Alliance. She also received a scholarship to dance with the Dallas Black Dance Theater. She has performed in several Music Is Art shows in Buffalo, NY where she danced alongside The Goo Goo Dolls.

Jennifer has taught in several Buffalo-area studios, and has been teaching for 11 years now. She currently teaches Ballet, Lyrical, Contemporary, Jazz, and Musical Theater at Performance Plus.

Jennifer says she is now happy to be back in Rochester teaching at the studio she grew up in!
